Art Unit: 2644

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless -

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1 to 5 and 7 to 8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Huemann.

Huemann discloses an acoustic apparatus which is comprised of one or more front speaker (20) disposed at front side in a space for outputting a first audio signal (output of 10); one or more rear speaker disposed at rear side in the space for outputting a second audio signal (36); a volume control device for controlling volume level of the first audio signal and the second audio signal (50); a balance control device for controlling balance between the volume levels of the first audio signal and the second audio signal by attenuating the volume levels of the first audio signal and the second audio signal (46 and 38); an external signal supplying device for supplying an external audio signal to either one for the front speaker and the second speaker (12 or 14); a control device for controlling the volume control device to attenuate the volume level of the audio signal when the external audio signal is supplied to one of the front speaker and the second speaker which has not been attenuated by the balance control device and the balance control device attenuates the volume level of the one of the front speaker and the second speaker

(16); a mute instruction unit for detecting a mute instruction inputted by the user (44); and the control device detects a supply of the external audio signal (40 and 52).

3. Claim 6 is objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
